Former military members Trever and Natalia Clough are sharing their passion for health with the community of Grand Ledge. They've purchased and operated previous physical fitness centers and now have strategies to continue. Using the SBA 504 Loan Program and teaming up with Senior Loan Officer, Coty Gould and Business Development Officer, Brett Pacek at Case Credit Union was instrumental in financing a new site for Eagle Fit 24/7.

This new center has allowed Trever and Natalia to have an effective competitive edge in this physical fitness market. They not only are creating new jobs and improving locations, but in the process, they locked in a low interest rate that is fixed for the life of the loan.
